Any delegation pursuant to this Section 4.03 may be revoked at any time, with or without cause, by the Managing Members. The Managing Members are authorized to employ, engage and dismiss, on behalf of the Company, any Person, including an Affiliate of any Member, to perform services for, or furnish goods to, the Company. This Section 4.03 does not limit the power or authority of the Managing Members, and actions and inactions of officers, with respect to the Company of any of its Subsidiaries shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement and such other limitations as may be determined by the Managing Members. In addition to or in lieu of officers, the Managing Members may authorize any Person to take any action or perform any duties on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (including any action or duty reserved to any particular officer) and any such Persons may be referred to as an "authorized person" or "authorized signatory", as applicable. Any employee, agent or other service provider of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries will not be an "authorized person" or an "authorized signatory" unless specifically appointed as such by the Managing Members.

Section IV.4 Exculpation; Limited Duties.

(a) Subject to applicable law, no current or former Managing Member or Officer in its, his or her capacity as such and no current or former Managing Member or Officer or any other Person who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, director (or Person in a similar position), officer, trustee, employee, authorized person, agent or similar functionary of another Entity (each of which shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement for purposes of this Section 4.04(a)) shall be liable, in damages or otherwise, to the Company or any Member for any actions taken, or actions failed to be taken, in good faith in its, his or her capacity as such, except for (i) any act taken by such Person purporting to bind the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that has not been authorized pursuant to this Agreement or by the Managing Members (or other applicable governing body), as appropriate, (ii) such Person's fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, or (iii) any breach by such Person of the terms set forth in this Agreement or any other agreement, instrument or policy to which such Person is a party or otherwise bound, including any employment, restrictive covenant or other agreement or arrangement (including employee policies of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) relating to the employment of or provision of services to the Company or its Subsidiaries. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company or any Member, as applicable, shall bear the burden of establishing a prima facie case that the Person entitled to exculpation as provided in the foregoing sentence has breached the standard of care set forth above in this Section 4.04(a).

(b) To the fullest extent not prohibited by law, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or in any agreement contemplated herein or applicable provisions of law or equity or otherwise, no Member, including the Managing Members, acting in such Person's capacity as such, shall (i) be deemed to have any fiduciary or other duties (including the duty of loyalty or the duty of care) to the Company or any Member other than the duty to comply with the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or (ii) be obligated to do or perform any act or thing in connection with the Company or its Subsidiaries not expressly set forth in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of any Member, including the Managing Members otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Persons, to the maximum extent not prohibited by applicable law.

Section IV.5 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Company shall and does hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless each current or former Member, the Tax Matters Member, the Liquidator and any of their respective Affiliates and any of such Person's respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders, partners, managers and members (each, an "Indemnified Party," each of which shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement for purposes of this Section 4.05), from and against any loss, expense or damage incurred by an Indemnified Party for any act or omission taken or suffered by such Indemnified Party in good faith (including any act or omission taken or suffered by any of them in reliance upon and in accordance with the opinion or advice of experts, including, legal counsel as to matters of law, accountants as to matters of accounting, or investment bankers or appraisers as to matters of valuation) in connection with the Company Business, including reasonable attorneys' fees, any amounts obligated to be paid in a judgment or claim, and any amount expended in the settlement of any claims of loss or damage, except with respect to (i) any act taken by such Indemnified Party purporting to bind the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that has not been authorized pursuant to this Agreement or by the Managing Members (or other applicable governing body), as appropriate, (ii) such Indemnified Party's fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, (iii) any breach by such Indemnified Party of the terms set forth in this Agreement or any other agreement, instrument or policy to which such Indemnified Party is a party or otherwise bound, including any employment, restrictive covenant or other agreement or arrangement (including employee policies of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) relating to the employment of or provision of services to the Company or its Subsidiaries, or (iv) any suit, action, proceeding, arbitration or similar matter (or any threat thereof) that is commenced (or threatened to be commenced) by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party, including any of the foregoing commenced (or threatened to be commenced) against the Company or any Subsidiary thereof or any other Indemnified Party or other Member. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Indemnified Party shall be entitled to be indemnified or held harmless by the Company with respect to any matter if such Indemnified Party shall settle, consent to entry of a judgment, compromise or take similar action in respect of any such matter without the prior written consent of the Company.

(b) Expenses reasonably incurred by an Indemnified Party in defense or settlement of any claim that are subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party to repay such amount to the extent that it shall be determined upon final adjudication after all possible appeals have been exhausted that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder.

(c) The satisfaction of any indemnification and expense advancement obligations pursuant to this Section 4.05 shall be from and limited to Company assets (including insurance and any agreements pursuant to which the Company, its Officers or employees are entitled to indemnification) and no Member, including the Managing Members, in such capacity, shall be subject to personal liability therefor.

(d) A Person's right to indemnification and advancement of expenses pursuant to this Section 4.05 shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other right that such Person may have to indemnification and advancement of expenses now existing or hereafter acquired.

(e) The Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of one or more Indemnified Parties and other Persons against any liability which may be asserted against, or expense which may be incurred by, any such Person in connection with the Company's activities.

(f) Subject to the terms of this Section 4.05, the Company hereby acknowledges that, in addition to the rights provided to the Managing Members or any Officers pursuant to this Agreement (as beneficiaries of such rights the Managing Members and such Officers are each herein referred to as a "Manager Indemnitee"), any Manager Indemnitee may have certain rights to indemnification and/or advancement of expenses provided by, and/or insurance obtained by, a Person and/or its Affiliates other than the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the "Ancillary Indemnitors"), whether now or in the future. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees that, with respect to its indemnification and advancement obligations to the Manager Indemnitees under this Agreement or otherwise, the Company (i) is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to indemnify the Manager Indemnitees are primary and any obligation of the Ancillary Indemnitors or their insurers to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by any of the Manager Indemnitees is secondary and excess), (ii) shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by each Manager Indemnitee and shall be liable for the full amount of all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement by each Manager Indemnitee or on his or her behalf to the extent legally permitted and as required by this Agreement, without regard to any rights such Manager Indemnitees may have against the Ancillary Indemnitors or their insurers, and (iii) irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Ancillary Indemnitors and such insurers from any and all claims against the Ancillary Indemnitors or such insurers for contribution, by way of subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Company agrees that in the event that any Ancillary Indemnitor or its insurer should advance any expenses or make any payment to a Manager Indemnitee for matters subject to advancement or indemnification by the Company pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, the Company shall promptly reimburse such Ancillary Indemnitor or insurer and that such Ancillary Indemnitor or insurer shall be subrogated to all of the claims or rights of such Manager Indemnitee under this Agreement or otherwise, including to the payment of expenses in an action to collect. The Company agrees that any Ancillary Indemnitor or its insurer not a party hereto shall be an express third party beneficiary of this Section 4.05(f).

ARTICLE V.
DISTRIBUTIONS

Distributions Generally

. The Company shall make Distributions to the Members of any amounts held by the Company in excess of its reasonable operating requirements and reserves (or Distributions to the Members of any amounts held by the Company immediately preceding the sale or other disposition of the Company or the Business, regardless of whether in excess of its reasonable operating requirements and reserves), at such times as proposed by the Managing Members amongst the Members in proportion with the ownership stake of each member by default.

The amounts to be distributed hereunder shall be the net cash proceeds received by the Company after payment of, or provision for, fees, expenses, and other Company debts, obligations and reserves required or permitted to be paid upon, or incurred or established in connection with, the receipt by the Company of such proceeds (said reserves to be established in the discretion of the Managing Members), and all expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the transaction giving rise to such proceeds (the "Distributable Proceeds"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Distribution shall be made unless after the Distribution the Company retains assets sufficient to pay all its debts as they become due and such Distribution, if made, would not cause the Company to otherwise become insolvent.

Any and all distributions by the Company shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the ownership stake of each Member.

Section 5.02 Return of Distributions. If the Company incurs any Clawback Liability, it may recall distributions previously made by the Company preceding the date of the incurrence, or due date for payment, of such Clawback Liability pursuant to this Agreement according to the amount that such Clawback Liability would have reduced the distributions received by the Members pursuant to this Agreement had such Clawback Liability been incurred, or payable, by the Company prior to the time such distributions were made (in each case, which recalled amounts shall be funded by the Members within ten (10) days after the date of any written request by the Company with respect thereto); provided that in no event shall (i) the recalled amount in respect of any Member exceed the aggregate amount of all distributions by the Company paid to such Member or (ii) any Member be required to fund an amount in excess of its allocable portion of any such Clawback Liability to the extent resulting from any other Member's breach of its obligations under this Section.

ARTICLE VI.
ALLOCATIONS

General Application

. Except as explicitly provided elsewhere herein, the items of income, gain, loss or deduction of the Company comprising Net Income or Net Loss for a Fiscal Year or other applicable period shall be allocated among the Members in a pro rata among the Members, in accordance with the Members' respective ownership percentage at the time of the allocation, except as otherwise agreed any time upon a unanimous vote of the Members.

Section VI.2 Transfer of Interest.

(a) In the event of a transfer of all or part of a Unit in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the admission of an Additional Member in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Company's taxable year shall close with respect to the transferring Member, and such Member's distributive share of all items of profits, losses and any other items of income, gain, loss or deduction shall be determined using the interim closing of the books method under Code Section 706 and Regulations Section 1.706-1(c)(2)(i). Except as otherwise provided herein, in all other cases in which it is necessary to determine the profits, losses, or any other items allocable to any period, profits, losses, and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly, or other basis, as determined by the Managing Members using any permissible method under Code Section 706 and the Regulations thereunder.

(b) A transferee of all or part of a Unit shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor in respect of such Unit (or part thereof) and all distributions in respect of such transferred Unit (or part thereof) shall take into account distributions previously made to the transferor in respect of such Unit (or part thereof) such that the aggregate distributions made in respect of such Unit (or part thereof) shall be the same as if no transfer occurred.

Section VI.3 Liquidation. Upon liquidation of the Company and after the payment in full of all credits, loans, debts of the Company at the time, liquidating Distributions shall be made, pro rata among the Members, in accordance with the Members' respective ownership percentage at the time of such liquidation. The Managing Managers shall use reasonable efforts to cause the proceeds from a liquidation of the Company to be distributed in the same calendar year in which the sale of Company assets occurs.

ARTICLE VII.
ACCOUNTING AND TAX MATTERS

Books and Records

. At all times during the existence of the Company, the Company shall, and shall cause each of its Officers to: (a) maintain accurate books and records reflecting the Company Group's assets and liabilities and maintain internal accounting, reporting and financial controls that are designed to provide assurance that (i) transactions are executed with management's general or specific authorization, (ii) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of its financial statements in conformity in all material respects with GAAP, and (iii) the operating plans and budgets fairly present the matters set forth therein; and (b) maintain, at its principal place of business, separate books of account for the Company Group, including the Company Register.

Consistency

. Without the permission of the Tax Matters Member, no Member shall file a petition under Section 6226 of the Code with respect to a "partnership item" of the Company or request an administrative adjustment under Section 6227 of the Code with respect to such an item.

Tax Returns

. The Managing Members, at the expense of the Company, shall endeavor to cause the preparation and timely filing (including extensions) of all tax returns required to be filed by the Company pursuant to the Code as well as all other required tax returns in each jurisdiction in which the Company or its Subsidiaries, is required by law to file a tax return. As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each Fiscal Year, the Managing Members will cause to be delivered to each Person who was a Member at any time during such Fiscal Year, information with respect to the Company as may be necessary for the preparation of such Person's Federal, state and local income tax returns for such Fiscal Year. All expenses incurred by the Managing Members while acting in such capacity shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company.

Tax Controversies

. Robert W. Burton or its designee is hereby designated and shall serve as the "partnership representative" of the Company (the "Tax Matters Member") within the meaning of amended Section 6223(a) of the Code (or any successor thereto), and in any similar capacity under state, local or non-U.S. law, as applicable, and is authorized and required to represent the Company (at the Company's expense), in connection with all examinations of the Company's affairs by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings. The Tax Matters Member may designate a natural person to serve as the "designated individual" as required by the applicable Regulations.

(a) Each Member agrees that any action taken by the Tax Matters Member in connection with audits of the Company shall be binding upon such Members and each such Member further agrees that such Member shall not treat any Company item inconsistently on such Member's income tax return with the treatment of the item on the Company's return and that such Member shall not independently act with respect to tax audits or tax litigation affecting the Company. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a Member is not bound by any action taken by the Tax Matters Member in connection with audits of the Company if such action is prohibited by law.

(b) The Tax Matters Member shall have the right to make on behalf of the Company any and all elections and take any and all actions that are available to be made or taken by the partnership representative or the Company under the Partnership Tax Audit Rules and the Members shall take such actions requested by the partnership representative consistent with any such elections made and actions taken by the partnership representative, including filing amended tax returns and paying any tax due in accordance with Section 6225(c)(2) of the Code as amended by the Partnership Tax Audit Rules. The Tax Matters Member shall attempt to allocate the burden of (or any diminution in distributable proceeds resulting from) any taxes, penalties or interest imposed on the Company pursuant to the Partnership Tax Audit Rules to those Members to whom such amounts are specifically attributable (whether as a result of their status, actions, inactions or otherwise) where such allocation can be achieved without unwarranted expense and effort (as measured in relation to the aggregate amount in question) as determined by the Managing Members.

(c) Under Section 6225 of the Code, in the case of any adjustment by the IRS in the amount of any item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit of the Company or any Member's distributive share thereof ("IRS Adjustment"), the Company may pay an imputed underpayment as calculated under Section 6225(b) of the Code with respect to the IRS Adjustment, including interest and penalties ("Imputed Tax Underpayment") in the adjustment year or otherwise take the IRS Adjustment into account in the adjustment year. Each Member agrees to amend its U.S. federal income tax return(s) to include (or reduce) its allocable share of the Company's income (or losses) resulting from an IRS Adjustment and pay any tax due with such return as required under Section 6225(c)(2) of the Code even if an Imputed Tax Underpayment liability of the Company or IRS Adjustment occurs after the Member's withdrawal from the Company. Each Member does hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and Tax Matters Member from and against any liability with respect to the Member's proportionate share of any Imputed Tax Underpayment or other IRS Adjustment resulting in liability of the Company, regardless of whether such Member is a Member in the Company in an adjustment year, with such proportionate share as reasonably determined by the Tax Matters Member, including the Tax Matters Member's reasonable discretion to consider each Member's interest in the Company in the reviewed year and a Member's timely provision of information necessary to reduce the amount of Imputed Tax Underpayment set forth in Section 6225(c) of the Code. This obligation shall survive a Member's ceasing to be a Member of the Company and/or the termination, dissolution, liquidation and winding-up of the Company.

(d) The Tax Matters Member may in its sole discretion elect under Section 6226 of the Code to cause the Company to issue adjusted IRS Schedules K-1 (or such other form as applicable) reflecting a Member's shares of any IRS Adjustment for the adjustment year as an alternative to the Company's payment of an Imputed Tax Underpayment for any tax year.

Accounting Methods; Elections

. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement in the case of any election that could reasonably be expected to have a material tax consequence for any Member, the Managing Members shall determine the accounting methods and conventions to be used in the preparation of the Company's tax returns and shall make any and all elections under the tax laws of the United States and any other relevant jurisdictions as to the treatment of items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of the Company, or any other method or procedure related to the preparation of the Company's tax returns.

Partnership Status

. Except in connection with an Initial Public Offering, the Members intend, and the Company shall take no position inconsistent with, treating the Company as a partnership for Federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes. In furtherance of the foregoing, and except in connection with an Initial Public Offering, the Company shall neither elect, pursuant to Regulations Section 301.7701-3(c), to be treated as an entity other than a partnership nor elect, pursuant to Code Section 761(a), to be excluded from the provisions of subchapter K of the Code. Each Member and the Company will file all tax returns and will otherwise take all tax and financial reporting positions in a manner consistent with such treatment. The Company will not make any election to be treated as a corporation for Federal and, if applicable, state income tax purposes, except with the approval of the Managing Members. To ensure that Units are not traded on an established securities market within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.7704-1(b) or readily tradable on a secondary market or the substantial equivalent thereof within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.7704-1(c), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein and except in connection with an Initial Public Offering, (a) the Company shall not participate in the establishment of any such market or the inclusion of its Units thereon, and (b) the Company shall not recognize or approve any Transfer made on any such market or that would result in the Units being traded on any such market.

Tax Matters Member Indemnification

. The Company shall indemnify the Tax Matters Member (including the officers and directors of a corporate Tax Matters Member) against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred in any civil, criminal or investigative proceeding in which the Tax Matters Member is involved or threatened to be involved by reason of being the Tax Matters Member except in the case of (i) the Tax Matters Member's fraud or gross negligence and/or (ii) any willful material breach by the Tax Matters Member of the terms set forth in this Agreement; provided that the Tax Matters Member acted in good faith, within what it reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company or its Members. The indemnification provided in this Section 7.07 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any applicable status, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII.
TRANSFERS

Section VIII.1 Transfer of Units.

(a) No Member may, directly or indirectly, Transfer all or any portion of his, her or its Units, whether now or hereafter acquired, except: (i) to a Permitted Transferee and, in all cases, in compliance with this Article VIII; (ii) with, and in accordance with, the prior written consent of the Managing Members; (iii) pursuant to a Drag-Along Transaction under Section 8.06; (iv) to another Member; or (v) pursuant to a Tag-Along Transaction under Section 8.07. Further, the Parties agree and understand that each Member shall have the right of First Refusal with respect of his, hers or its Units in the Company with the initial offer being presented via written notification to the Members.

(a) As a condition to any Transfer to a Permitted Transferee permitted under this Agreement, such Permitted Transferee shall have agreed in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and any other transaction documents to which such transferor is a party, which agreement is reasonably satisfactory to the Managing Members. A Member must give prior written notice to the Managing Members of any proposed Transfer to a Permitted Transferee, including the identity of such proposed Permitted Transferee and such other documentation reasonably requested by the Managing Members to ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no Member shall Transfer any of its Units at any time if such action would (i) cause the Company to be taxable as a "publicly traded partnership" under the Code, or (ii) constitute a violation of any Federal or state securities or blue sky laws or a breach of the conditions to any exemption from registration of the Units under any such laws or a breach of any undertaking or agreement of a Member entered into pursuant to such laws or in connection with obtaining an exemption thereunder, and the Company shall not (unless otherwise determined by the Managing Members) transfer upon its books any Units unless prior thereto the Company has requested and received an opinion of counsel (unless such requirement to provide an opinion of counsel is otherwise waived by the Managing Members, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Managing Members that such transaction is in compliance with this Section 8.01(c). UNITS IN

THE COMPANY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND, THEREFORE, CANNOT BE RESOLD UNLESS SUCH UNITS ARE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND ALL APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, OR UNLESS EXEMPTIONS FROM REGISTRATION ARE AVAILABLE.

(c) Each Member agrees, upon request of the Managing Members, to execute such certificates or other documents and perform such acts as the Managing Members reasonably deem appropriate to preserve the status of the Company as a limited liability company after the completion of any Transfer of Units of such Member under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Company is conducting its operations.

(d) Subject to Section 8.05, the transferor Member shall remain liable to the Company for all contributions and other amounts payable with respect to the transferred Units to the same extent as if no Transfer had occurred.

Transferee's Rights

. Any purported Transfer of Units of any Member which is not in compliance with this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio and of no force and effect whatsoever. Subject to the foregoing, a transferee of any Units of any Member shall be entitled to receive distributions of cash or other property from the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Distributions Subsequent to Transfer

. A Transfer of a Member's Units as described in this Article VIII shall be effective on the date the requirements of this Article VIII are satisfied, or at such earlier time as the Managing Members determine. Distributions with respect to such Transferred Units made after the effective date of such Transfer shall be made to the transferee.

Satisfactory Written Transfer Required

. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, both the Company and the Managing Members shall be entitled to treat the transferor of Units as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability for distributions made in good faith to it, until such time as a written notice of such Transfer indicating that such Transfer conforms to the requirements of this Article VIII has been received by, and such Transfer is recorded on the books of, the Company.

Bankruptcy or Death of a Member

. The Bankruptcy or death of a Member shall not cause a dissolution of the Company, but the rights of such Member to receive distributions and to Transfer its Units pursuant to this Article

VIII shall, on the happening of such an event, devolve on its successor, administrator or other legal representative for the purpose of settling its estate or administering its property, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and the Company shall continue as a limited liability company. The successor or estate of such Member shall be liable for all the obligations of such bankrupt or deceased Member.

ARTICLE IX.
CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidentiality

. Without the prior written consent of the Managing Members, no Member shall disclose to any Person any proprietary, confidential or non-public information of or relating to the Company Group or its respective businesses (including, without limitation, the Company Business), operations or affairs, other than disclosure on a need-to-know basis to such Member's employees, attorneys, accountants, other advisors, agents and representatives that are providing services to such Member in connection with its investment in the Company (each such Person being hereinafter referred to as an "Authorized Representative"); provided that such Member or any of its Authorized Representatives may make such disclosure to the extent that: (a) the information being disclosed is in connection with such Member's tax returns (including any audit thereof); (b) such disclosure is to a Member's officers, directors, members, partners, investors, prospective investors, financing sources or prospective financing sources; (c) such disclosure is to any employees, agents or representatives of the Company Group in the course of any employment or consulting relationship between the Member and any of the Company Group; (d) the information being disclosed is otherwise generally available to the public other than as a result of any breach of, or noncompliance with, the provisions of this Section 9.02; (e) such disclosure is required by any governmental body, agency, official or authority having jurisdiction over such Member; or (f) such disclosure, based upon the advice of legal counsel of such Member or Authorized Representative, is otherwise required by law or statute. Prior to any Member making any disclosure described in the immediately preceding clauses (e) or (f), such Member shall notify the Managing Members of such disclosure if not prohibited by law to do so. Each Member shall use all reasonable efforts to cause and shall instruct each of its Authorized Representatives to comply with the obligations of such Member under this Section 9.02. In connection with any disclosure described in clauses (e) or (f) above, the disclosing Member shall cooperate with the Company at the Company's expense in seeking any protective order or other appropriate arrangements as the Managing Members may reasonably request.

ARTICLE X.
DISSOLUTION; LIQUIDATION

Dissolution

. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up on the first to occur of either of the following events:

(a) the decision of the Managing Members to dissolve the Company (subject to the terms of this Agreement); or

(b) any other event sufficient under the Nevada Act or other applicable law to require the dissolution of the Company.

Final Accounting

. Upon the dissolution of the Company, a proper accounting shall be made from the date of the last previous accounting to the date of dissolution.

Liquidation

. Dissolution of the Company shall be effective as of the date on which the event occurs giving rise to the dissolution and all Members shall be given prompt notice thereof in accordance with Article XII, but the Company and this Agreement shall not terminate until the assets of the Company have been distributed as provided for in Section 10.03(b) and Section 10.03(c). Notwithstanding the dissolution of the Company, prior to the termination of the Company, the business, assets and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by this Agreement.

(a) Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Managing Members or, if the Managing Members so desires, a Person selected by the Managing Members shall act as the liquidator (the "Liquidator") of the Company to wind up the Company. The Liquidator shall have full power and authority to sell, assign and encumber any or all of the Company's assets and to wind up and liquidate the affairs of the Company in an orderly and business-like manner.

(b) The Liquidator shall distribute all proceeds from liquidation in the following order of priority: (i) first, to creditors of the Company (including creditors who are Members) in satisfaction of the liabilities of the Company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof); and (ii) second, in the same manner in which non-liquidating distributions are made pursuant to Section 5.01.

(c) The Liquidator shall determine whether any assets of the Company shall be liquidated through sale or shall be distributed in kind. A distribution in kind of an asset to a Member shall be considered, for the purposes of this Article X, a distribution in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of the assets so distributed as determined by the Liquidator (and not the Managing Members unless one of the Managing Members is the Liquidator) in its sole and absolute discretion.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS

The headings and captions herein are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to govern, limit or aid in the construction of any term or provision hereof. It is the intention of the parties that every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be construed simply according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party (notwithstanding any rule of law requiring an Agreement to be strictly construed against the drafting party), it being understood that the parties to this Agreement are sophisticated and have had adequate opportunity and means to retain counsel to represent their interests and to otherwise negotiate the provisions of this Agreement. To the extent that any ambiguity or inconsistency arises with respect to any provision(s) of this Agreement, the Managing Members shall resolve such ambiguity or inconsistency in good faith and such resolution shall be binding upon the Members.

. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any Person or circumstances shall be held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining terms and provisions hereof and the application of such term or provision to Persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby.
